Questionnaire

Now that you are working with us...

Do you have any concerns or uncertainties about working with us?

Are you willing to spend the time and effort necessary to grow and achieve your goals in your marriage?

Are you open to learning how God can be more central to your marriage?

What is the one thing you hope to get out of these marriage coaching sessions?

If you get behind on your goals/homework, how can we best motivate you?

Is there anything else about you, individually or your marriage relationship, that you feel is important for us to know?
